

Adam Wayne Wommack

June 29, 1977 - March 28, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Adam Wayne Wommack, a devoted husband, cherished family man, and a friend to many. Adam passed away peacefully on March 28, 2025, surrounded by the love of his family. He was 47 years old.

Born on June 29, 1977, Adam grew up with a deep appreciation for life, family, and faith. Over the years, he touched so many lives through his humor, kindness, and unwavering compassion. He was a steadfast member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints for 10 years, where his faith and love for serving others inspired all who knew him.

Adam's greatest source of pride was his family. As a loving husband to Estelle Elizabeth Wommack and a devoted step father to Amber Lynn Steven's , he poured his heart into creating a home filled with love, laughter, and joy. His family will forever remember his warm smiles, endless support, and the countless moments of fun and adventure they shared together.

Beyond his love for family and faith, Adam was a man of eclectic interests. He was a passionate fan of Doctor Who, delighting in the mysteries of time and space, and an enthusiastic player of Magic: The Gathering, a hobby that allowed him to connect with friends and share his strategic mind. His passion for these pastimes reflected his curious spirit and ability to find joy in the smaller details of life.

Adam's legacy is one of love, laughter, and service. His ability to uplift those around him was truly remarkable, and he will be remembered for his kind soul, his quick wit, and his dedication to the people he cared about most. Though our hearts are heavy with his loss, we find solace in knowing that his memory will live on in the countless lives he touched.

Adam is survived by his loving wife, Estelle Elizabeth Wommack , and his child Amber Lynn Steven's. Devoted brothers and their wife's Roger and Brenda Wommack, Donald Wommack, Michael and Stacy Wommack. Niece and nephews Dylan, Alex ,Jacob Wommack and Shelby Belville. Great nephews and niece are Oliver, Henry, Ivy Belville and Brantley Wommack. As well as a host of family and friends whose lives were made brighter by his presence. He is preceded in death by loving mother Shirley Ann Wommack and devoted father Richard Elmer Wommack.

A memorial service to honor Adam's extraordinary life will be held on April 12, 2025 at 10 am at Church of Latter-Day Saints at 409 5th Avenue SE Glen Burnie MD 21061 . Family and friends are invited to join us in celebrating the life of this remarkable man and sharing memories of the joy he brought into the world.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to The Church of Latter-Day Saints 409 Fifth Avenue SE, Glen Burnie, MD 21061

Adam will be deeply missed, but the love and lessons he leaves behind will remain with us forever. In his honor, may we strive to emulate the kindness, passion, and light he brought to every day. Rest in peace, dear Adam—you were truly one of a kind.

“ It is with my deepest condolences for such a great loss. I remember when I was a member of the Glen Burnie ward, Adam was always so nice to me. I wasn't one to show up like I should , but when I did Adam was always there with a smile ready to shake my hand and welcome me. I'm sorry for the pain I know the family is going thru. You will be in my prayers. God Bless
