“ I served with Alan aboard the USNS Corpus Christi Bay in Vietnam, 1969. We became good friends and hung out a lot on the ship. I remember on New Years Eve 1969 we were in the bearing shop listening to the top 100 songs of the year on AFVN radio. When the #1 song came up around midnight we just looked at each other and pretended to vomit. The song was " Sugar, Sugar". Many good memories of Al as we all called him, including the CC Bay reunions. Rest in eternal peace old friend.

“ AB and I first met while attending Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA. Because I was lucky, he became one of my best friends.

We shared a lot of good times together over the years.

I will always feel lucky to have been his friend.

AB always had a mischievous smile on his face and a warm heart in his chest.

I will miss him dearly.

Godspeed old friend – until we meet again.

Your buddy for all time,

Chris Christensen, Fort Myers Beach, FL

“ This is Cindy Carey Stivers. Growing up my family and Alans were connected by my mom and his dad. Being brother and sister we were a family that got together for holidays, spending time at our grandparents farm. As our families grew we still would get together for the dinners at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Alan was our older cousin and he was how a older cousin should be. Snow ball fights, fishing, watching my Uncle Bane tie fishing lures in his basement. Family reunions in Middleburg, Va was a big gathering. We chased each other, swam in the green swimming pool water that was hard. He would come to the family funerals as we got older. And now he will be honored by family. God bless you my dear cousin. Tell the family to make room at the dinner table these holidays. Loving,
Cindy
