“ Pavel, as we all know, there no words to overcome the grief and sadness of the tragic loss of Allesandra. The only comfort comes from knowing that she worked at a job that she truly enjoyed and was her passion in life. Thank you for sharing the tribute to AJ. It was so well done. Best.

“ It it with a heavy heart having say goodbye to such young and beautiful soul. I’ve had the privilege of knowing AJ for over a decade now and when we first met she quickly fell into the roll of becoming the little sister I always wanted. I will forever cherish the all of the memories we had together from the younger years vacationing in the Wisconsin Dells having a blast driving our parents crazy to having her come stay with me in Chicago years later when I was in college. All of the laughs...Christmas’s...birthdays... holiday party’s...filled with such happiness will never be forgotten. To her family and friends, I am so so sorry for your terrible loss. To Pavel, the best Dad anyone could ask for, my heart just breaks for you. I am so sorry. We will always be here for you..you are our family and we love you to the moon and back. To AJ, you will be always on my mind and forever in my heart. Rest In Peace little one. XX

“ It is with great sadness that we recognize the passing of a recent volunteer and member of the World Vets community. Allessandra (AJ) Lesho, who joined us last week in Ecuador, tragically lost her life in a motor vehicle accident days after returning home. Although she was only with us for a week she managed to touch many. Her beautiful soul, kind nature and pure joy and wonder for life was infectious. She embodied all the characteristics needed to be a global ambassador for animal health and welfare. Her caring, non-judgemental, and inquisitive nature allowed her to make friends with everyone. Her love for animals was easily apparent. Her excitement to have been just admitted into veterinary technician school was palpable; vowing to take her new skills and knowledge to help the most vulnerable amongst us. She was the kind of person who left an imprint wherever she roamed. \r\r Last week during out community outreach day I had the opportunity to talk with AJ about her World Vets experience. With permission from her family, I would like to share her experience and remember AJ for her kind heart, dedication and service to the animals and people of Ecuador. \r\r https://www.dropbox.com/sh/wo47qe6ql0op55r/AACkVr_w_B1f04IRIfFkwUBsa?dl=0

“ We are devastated by this news. AJ was our in-home pet sitter and was wonderful with our two dogs. She was a special young lady and will be missed by humans, canines, and felines alike. As it was her passion, we will be sending a donation in her name to WorldVets.
