“ My sincerest condolences to Ana's family. She was one of the most amazing, kindest, smartest and let's not forget stylish people I have ever met in my life. Her spirit was always vibrant and the impact that she had on my life will never be forgotten. I truly am honored to have had the chance to meet, know, and work for her. Ana, you may be physically absent, but your soul and spirit will always be in my heart. I love you very much!

“ Ana, I miss you. I have been asked by people from you all over the State to pass on their regards and wishes. Know that you were, and are, loved and respected by all. You will never be forgotten. My sincere condolences to your family for the loss of such a special, vibrant, caring and loving individual. Your time with us was too short. Love, Carol
