“Andie was my lifelong childhood friend. We met at such a young age I don't remember not knowing her. Before social media Andie and I, sometimes would not speak for years and pick up right where we left off when we did come back together! Now that Andie is gone I have come to realize that she was “my person”! The person that I could tell anything to and she could tell me anything. She had my back as I did hers. I will miss you terribly, my dear friend, who was taken away from us way too soon! Till we meet again on the other side, rest in peace! P.S. take care of my baby girl, Heather... and God, take care of my dear friend and daughter! Your dad George, brothers and sister Nathan, Dan, and Gail Mangum; your granddaughters Dakota and Mandy; and your nephew and niece Brent and Danielle will miss you! We know you are with your mother, Peggy and she is taking care of you like you took care of her before she passed.”
