

Anita Martin Wren

March 20, 1940 - February 21, 2021

Anita M. Wren

Born, March 20, 1940 in Brooklyn, New York to parents James and Anne Martin where her father worked on the railroad. In 1948, at age 8, they moved to Maryland. One year later, 1949, Anita was presented with a baby sister, Donna. This was not always a happy experience having to share her baby doll carriage for her baby sister, but a loving one just the same.

Anita loved to dress up, dance and socialize with her friends. Meeting and marrying Harold (Dick) Wren in 1958. Shortly after having a son, Richard Jeffrey Wren (Jeff). In 1961 they were blessed with a daughter Judith Lynn Wren (Judy). Many years followed of camping, reading mystery novels, playing computer games, and working on her quilting material. She was proud of her Irish heritage and loved listening to Irish music. In 1982 Judy married James (Jim) Farish. Dick and Anita were blessed with a granddaughter, Jessica Lynn Farish (Jessie) in 1991.

In 2002, they were saddened by the passing of their son, Jeff. Shortly after, they moved to Middlesex Road where they formed lasting friendships with many special people. In 2017, to our sadness, we lost our beloved Dick. In 2018, Anita moved to Golden Ring Co-Op where she again met many wonderful people.

Not long after settling into her new home, her battle with cancer began. For two years she fought like a soldier, but on February 21, 2021, she passed peacefully with her daughter, Judy and sister, Donna by her side, joining her departed loved ones in a joyous reunion.

She will be resting in peace at Parkwood Cemetery, 3310 Taylor Avenue, Parkville, MD 21234 with other family members. A memorial service will be scheduled at a later date due to Covid restrictions. Anita left behind a dedicated and loving family. Her daughter, Judy with husband James (Jim), granddaughter Jessica (Jessie), sister, Donna with husband Bob Hausmann, nephew, Brian Hausman, nephew, Jim Hausmann with wife Missy, great niece, Kayla Hausmann, and great nephews Dylan and Brayden Hausmann.
