

Anthony Joseph Pessagno, Jr.

September 21, 1988 - January 19, 2024

Anthony Joseph Pessagno Junior was a loving kind, generous, outgoing, son, brother, father, and so much more. He tried to be such a social bug he loved his family dearly.

He left behind his mother, Susan T Hayes, father Anthony Joseph Pessagno Sr, his three beautiful girls, Skyler, Savannah, Serena, and his oldest AJ. He also leaves behind his oldest sister Candis Shires, younger brother, Elmer William Pessagno, His fiancé Abby, the mother of his girls, Krystal, and all kinds of cousins and friends. He will be truly missed by us all.

“ 🙏Baby, I still can't believe you're gone. 😭😭😭 I waited all my life for you & I hate that it was such a short time but u loved me like I always needed! You were such a good man to me! 💙 I will never find another one like u. 🙏 We shared some many good times & losing u has been by far the hardest loss I've ever experienced in my life. 100 This is gonna take a while to heal from this one, if ever. I hope you are finally at peace now & can Rest Easy baby. Please get it ready for me & say Hellooo to my Momma for me babes! 💖💕 I love u to the moon & back 1,000 times baby! 100 Love Always 💙, Your Wifey, 🙏Abbie🙏 🖤🖤🖤💋💋💋💖💖💖💙💙💙💕💕💕🥰🥰🥰

“ T.j. 😞😞😞😞😞😞 I can't believe I'm writing this. Deeeep sigh 😞 I have known u my whole life 29 years we've lost contact we run in to each other and catch right back up. In mins every time u seen me u would give me and bear 🐻 hug and say “damn ur still short” 🤪 thru the good the bad to the bag and the ugly u kept it 1000 % hard to find. T.j I pray ur at peace now. No more worry! U only gotta do one thing. Watch over them baby's!!! \n\nI luv ya and miss ya t.j until we link up again 😞\n\n \nBrandy Blevins,Beckett

“ Tj's last job , he did this set of steps
Our family is heart broken at the loss of a Close friend, He was family and will be missed
Prayers to his family .
All he wanted was his family to be a family

“ In Memory of our Nephew TJ 🙏🙏❤️❤️\n\nIt broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone.\nA part of us went with you, the day God took you home.\nIf tears could build a stairway. and heartaches make a lane, we'd walk our way to heaven, and bring you back again.\nIn life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still, in our hearts you hold a place no one could ever fill.\nFrom the Bonnell family ❤️🙏

“ TJ, I know we butted heads a lot but you are and always will be my son. I remember when I first moved in with your dad, he was in the hospital and I had this incredibly painful back. You did everything you could to make me comfortable. I love you, wish I had told you that more often, and I will definitely miss you. The other thing I was so proud of you for is the way you loved your girls, your face lit up so much whenever you was with them ❤️😭💔🙏❤️

“ Dear T, \n\n Aunt Sherri is going to miss you so much. I'm going to miss you call me at 1 or 2 in the morning just to see what we are up to. I would say trying to sleep and you saying no you're not, Aunt Sherri you're a night owl. Also you saying ok go to sleep I'll call you back in the morning. Then call me back at 6am 📞. I'm going to miss those bear hugs that took my breath away. I love you and will never be ok about you not being here to make me laugh and cry. Say Hi to everyone up there 🙏💕
