Anthony “Tony” Owen Robinson, 74, of Hanover, MD passed away peacefully on November 22, 2025, at home. He was born in Baltimore, MD on August 5, 1951, to John Ashton Robinson and Bertha “Betty” Marie Bush.

Tony graduated from Brooklyn Park High School in 1969 and went on to become a master plumber following in his father and brother’s footsteps who were also skilled tradesmen. Tony worked for Bethlehem Steel, Smith Mechanics and was self-employed.

He was married to Carolyn “Sue” Robinson on Sept 6, 1980, and together they had two children, Shannon Dunphy and Anthony “T.J.” Robinson.

Tony was a man of little words but if you had the privilege to see him crack a smile or to be the center of his joke you were considered part of his circle. Tony was particular in his ways, a practical joker, and a jack of all trades when it came to repairing and fixing things.

Tony is survived by his wife, Sue Robinson. His children Shannon Dunphy (Brian), son T.J. Robinson, grandchildren Brice and Aiden Dunphy, and brother Johnny Robinson (Marsha). He is preceded in death by his parents John and Betty Robinson, brothers Warren, Terry and Michael Robinson and sister Carly Ryan.

A celebration of life will be held in the future.
