

Anthony Wayne Wilson, Sr.

November 16, 1958 - July 4, 2020

Anthony Wayne Wilson, Sr.

Anthony Wayne Wilson was the 10th child born to Joseph and Lillie B. Wilson, who preceded him in death. Anthony was affectionately know as “Tony.”

Tony was the nicest man anyone could ever know. He always had nothing but kind and encouraging words to say. Tony was a jack of all trades. He loved doing cement work. He also loved to box, crab and just sit around, talking to his family and many friends.

Tony leaves to mourn four children: Toni Wilson, Anthony Wilson, Jr., Nia Hills and Gerina Wilson; two son-in-laws: David Booker and Darryl Hills; eight grandchildren: Michael, Devon, Tori, Terri, Mariyah, Miyah, Taylor and Tiana; one great-grandchild: Major; siblings: Horace (Buster) (dec'd), Robert (dec'd), Joseph (Leroy) (dec'd), Julia Ann Hubbard (dec'd), Joan Ellis (dec'd), Leonard, Ronald (Peewee), Brenda and Sharon (Frenchie); a special friend: Sterling Hart; godson: Jerry Frias (Toosha) and host of family and friends.

Continue to remember Tony for the man that he was and hold onto all of the memories you shared with him.

“ Tony was the first Wilson I ever met. We had a party in our basement and we invited him. Everybody who knew the Wilson men know they wore big heel shoes, he danced so hard he broke his heel he went and changed them came right back with another pair. Tony was always a nice and peaceful guy, always willing to help everybody and he didn't mind doing it. I still remember hanging in his Van that never worked parked in front of Ms. Lily house we had so much fun. So many memories they all were great. Rih Brother inlaw God needed a handy man, you will be missed. Your sis Miney...
