

Asako S. Davis

October 10, 1928 - November 19, 2018

Asako Davis was born October 10, 1928 in Taiwan. After marrying Henry L. Davis on October 18, 1954, the couple began a life together raising a family of three children while travelling the world in service of the United States Army. Upon her husband's retirement from the military the couple established residence in Warner Robins, GA. Asako loved nothing more than spending time with her family. Her greatest joy was seeing her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren laughing and having a good time together. A wonderful cook, Asako could always be found in or near her kitchen, preparing one of her fabulous meals for anyone who happened to be visiting. She was a loving, caring, and giving woman. She adored her grandchildren and could always be found searching for something special for any given one; always something unique and individual for each child. Asako loved to play cards and in particular poker. While she may not have had the greatest poker face she always seemed to walk away with the most chips. Asako passed away on November 19, 2018 and was predeceased by Henry. Her memory will forever be cherished by her children and their families: Edward G. Davis, wife Terry of Woodstock, GA, Frank L. Davis, wife Rhonda of Glen Burnie, MD, Eileen D. Smasal, husband Tim of Warner Robins, GA. Grandchildren: Jennifer Thomas, Michael Davis, Lisa Davis, Kristi Robinson, Jessica Estes, Gregg Davis, Troy Davis, Sonny Smasal, Jonathon Robinson, and Jessica Robinson and 10 great Grandchildren. Asako was a member of Soka Gakki International - USA for over 40 years. Celebration of her life will be held:

Sunday, November 25, 2018 at 1pm at SGI, Atlanta Center 421 17th St., Atlanta, GA 30363. Flowers and cards can be sent to the Atlanta Buddhism Center at the address above. Internment will take place on Monday, November 26, 2018, at Parkway Memorial Gardens, Warner Robins, GA 31093.
