

Bayani Pasco Lagpao

June 8, 1945 - December 31, 2025

Bayani Pasco Lagpao, 80, a beloved husband, father, and grandfather passed away on December 31, 2025. He was surrounded by love and will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Bayani was a devoted husband to Susan and a loving father to his children. He took great pride in his role as a grandfather and cherished every moment spent with his grandchildren. His family was the center of his life, and his steady presence, guidance, and love will remain with them always.

He proudly served in the United States Navy and was a Vietnam War veteran. His service was marked by dedication and a deep sense of duty, values he carried with him throughout his life and passed on to his family.

Beyond work, Bayani had many interests, none more so than his family. He enjoyed cooking; he liked to garden; he loved fishing and crabbing. After learning how to use his iPad, he loved connecting with family from the Philippines via Facebook, watching and posting videos, and enjoyed taking selfies!

Bayani will be remembered for his strength, kindness, and unwavering commitment to those he loved. His legacy lives on through the family he raised and the lives he touched. Bayani is Tagalog for 'hero' and he was and will always be our heroic father.

He is survived by his wife, Jesusa Lagpao; his children, Jesus Lagpao, Grecia Lagpao Hilton (James L. Hilton Jr.), and Annabelle Lagpao Nazareno (Ren Nazareno); his grandchildren, Christian Nazareno, Hanna Nazareno, Joseph Nazareno, and Gabriela Hilton; and many other loving family members and friends.
