“ Dear Aunt Beverly, Brenda, and Justin,
I am so sorry for your tremendous loss and I am here for you if you need anything.

Uncle Craig, I regret not taking action and getting together to do some of the things we talked about—like going fishing and to the range. Some of my best memories growing up come from moments spent with you doing those things and more, I've passed some of what I learned from you on to my children. For that, I will forever be grateful.

I appreciate you and your family for letting me tag along as if I were one of your own when I was young. As I got older, life seemed to move faster, and I didn't get to see you as often as I would have liked. But whenever I needed help, you always answered or showed up. You impacted my life more than you ever knew, and I will always cherish the memories I have with you and your family.

*Until I see you again,
David*
