

Betty Broseker

July 6, 1948 - June 22, 2026

In loving memory of Betty Broseker, who passed away peacefully on June 22, 2026, at the age of 77, after a short but courageous battle with cancer. Born on July 6, 1948, in Baltimore, Maryland, Betty was a beacon of light and love to all who had the honor of knowing her. Betty was the beloved daughter of the late Harry E. Koch and Ruth Koch, who instilled in her the values of kindness, resilience, and compassion that she carried throughout her life. She was predeceased by her cherished brother, Harry Koch, her beloved daughter, Nancy Chaney, and her adored grandson, Joshua Chaney. Their memories lived on in her heart and provided her with strength and guidance. Betty's life was filled with love, laughter, and an unwavering commitment to her family. Married to her devoted husband, James Broseker, for 38 beautiful years, Betty found her greatest joy in her role as a wife, mother, and grandmother. Together, she and James built a life rich in love and warmth, and their partnership was a testament to the power of enduring love. Betty is survived by her loving daughter, Ruth Sleboda, who carries forward her mother's legacy of compassion and grace. She is also survived by her treasured grandchildren, Justin Chaney and Amanda Chaney, who remember fondly the countless moments of joy and wisdom shared with their grandmother. In her great-grandchildren—Antonio Jr, Island, Damien, and Icey—Betty's spirit continues to shine brightly, their lives forever enriched by her gentle presence. Known for her gentle spirit and caring nature, Betty's life was defined by her deep love for her family and the kindness she extended to everyone she met. Her enduring devotion to those she loved will be remembered always. Though she will be deeply missed, her memory will forever remain a source of comfort, strength, and inspiration to all who had the privilege of knowing her. As we say goodbye to Betty, we remember her not only for the profound impact she had on our lives but also for the legacy of love she leaves behind. Her memory will forever be a guiding light, a reminder of the beauty of a life well-lived, and the enduring power of love.
