“ Breeanna was the closest thing I've ever had to having a sister. Over the past 10 years, I had the pleasure of watching her blossom into a beautiful young woman - with a stubbornness equal to my own, a temper that frightened many, as well as one HUGE heart that would help just about anyone... And that's what made her, HER. She came and moved in with me when I first brought Jourdan home from the hospital (after being born) && helped me DAY AND NIGHT for about 3 or 4 months consecutively. About 2 years later, she became pregnant with Little Miss Alayah Marie, whom I watched enter this world on August 7th, 2014. Breeanna was such a proud mommy && couldn't wait to have her baby boy, Adrian... There are countless memories that I will forever carry within my heart, I just wish we had more time to make MORE memories together. She will always be My Sister && I will defend her completely until my last breath. I miss you so much, Bee Bee - I hope to see you again one day, as well as our beautifully handsome nephew, Adrian Tyler. I never knew my heart could feel so empty... I LOVE YOU SOOO EFFING MUCH && WILL MISS YOU FOR FOREVER !!! Love You Bunches, Lin (aka - Sissy)
