“ She was the best grandmother you could ask for. She always made sure that I was doing okay and always was there for me whenever I needed her. She was the kindest person I ever met and called me almost every week in college to check on me. My college graduation goes out to her and I will always love her❤️❤️

“ Brenda L Mayeski of Baltimore, Maryland passed away peacefully on June 17th, surrounded by her family and eternal love.

Born December 8th, 1966, Brenda was the youngest of 3 siblings. She built a life rooted in family, kindness and selflessness. A devoted mother, grandmother and life partner. Brenda spent her entire life being nothing but the best she could possibly be for everyone in her circle.

She is survived by her 3 children, Ashley, Christina and Noel, her 7 grandchildren who lovingly called her “Mommom”, and her life partner, James. Brenda is preceded in death by beloved mother, Thelma.

Brenda will be remembered forever by her dedication to her family, her giving nature and her ability to make everyone feel seen and heard. To know Brenda, is to love Brenda. Her legacy lives on in the lives she touched and the love she gave so freely.
