

Brian Eigenbrode

April 12, 1956 - February 22, 2024

Brian Arthur Eigenbrode, age 67, of Baltimore, Maryland, passed away on February 22, 2024, in Baltimore.

Brian was born on April 12, 1956, in Baltimore to his late parents Melvin and Philomena Eigenbrode. Devoted and dedicated husband of 42 years to Gail Eigenbrode (nee Sikorsky). Doting and proud father of Nicole Kinstler (Dan) and Kathryn McNey (Mike). Adoring grandfather to Madison Kinstler, Oliver McNey, Wyatt Kinstler, and Theo McNey. He is survived by his loving sisters Linda Brooks and Tina Dorn, nieces, nephews and numerous sisters and brothers-in-law.

Brian attended Saint Dominic's Elementary School and Baltimore Polytechnic High School. He furthered his education at Essex Community College and Towson State University.

He dedicated 37 years of his life to a fulfilling career at Baltimore Gas & Electric Company, Constellation Energy, and Exelon from 1987 to 2023.

Brian was a devout member of St. Ursula Catholic Church where he found solace and community.

Known for his generous and selfless nature, Brian was a family-oriented man, with a good sense of humor. His booming voice let everyone know that Brian had arrived, without seeing him. He was reliable, kind, caring, and supportive to all who knew him. In his free time, Brian enjoyed coaching girls' soccer from 1993 to 2008, coaching his grandsons T-Ball/Baseball team(s), and refereeing youth soccer matches from 2001 to 2023.

A memorial service to honor and celebrate Brian's life is being planned for a later date. He will be dearly missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him.
