

Bruce David Johnson

August 8, 1962 - October 2, 2019

On Wednesday, October 2, 2019, Bruce Johnson, passed away at age 57 due to Stage 4 diffuse large B-cell lymphoma. Bruce Johnson was born on August 8, 1962 in Baltimore, MD to Charles and Anita Johnson. He graduated from Glen Burnie High School in 1980. He was a Master Fabric Specialist for Chem Dry for almost 20 years. He was married to Sara Medicus from September 1998 through August 2010 and they raised two children, Ashleigh and Kyle. Bruce had a passion for fishing, cooking and teaching. He loved his family and was often known as the life of the party at family gatherings. He loved comedy and because of that, he was known for his quick wit and uplifting jokes. He always knew how to break the ice, even leading up to his last days in the hospital. Bruce had strong faith as a Christian. He knew God's word and would often recite scriptures from memory. One of the highlights of his life was teaching Sunday School classes at his local church for several years. Bruce was predeceased by his father, Charles Johnson. He is survived by his mother Anita, and his three sisters, Dawn Dubiel, Donna Beaulieu, and Helene Bean, his children, Ashleigh and Kyle, and several nieces and nephews.
