“Bryson, I can still hear your powerful voice. You help me to grow in many ways, but mostly spiritually. Thank you for loving me just the way I am and for always encouraging me to keep growing, keep searching and keep believing. I will see you again my friend! I miss you soooo much.

“It breaks our hearts when death separates us from our loved ones no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. We are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised (soon) that death will be done away with...swallowed up forever. (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again. (John 5:28, 29) I hope in the days ahead as you reflect on the life of your loved one, and the precious memories left behind, that you will also find much comfort in God's promises to us for the near future, for they will not fail to come true. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.
