

Carol Kim Putt

September 12, 1965 - September 20, 2024

Carol Kim Putt, 59, of Glenburnie, Maryland, passed away suddenly but peacefully on 20 September, 2024. She is survived by her children, Jeremy, Timothy and Kimberly.

Carol was a passionate daughter, sister, mother, grandmother and friend. She dedicated much of her time volunteering with the Girl Scouts and Partners in Care, forming countless friendships and creating cherished memories. She found great joy in her work, particularly in finance, and often spoke fondly of her coworkers and the friendships she cultivated. Carol will always be remembered for her ability to bring people together and build strong communities.

In her passing, Carol gave life to another through donation. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
