

Catherine Louise Coffman

April 8, 1957 - September 29, 2019

On September 29, 2019 Catherine Coffman gained her wings home. Catherine grew up in the Remington area of Baltimore and was the daughter of the late Joseph R. And Doris M. Brown. She was preceded in death by her brothers Joseph and Clifford as well as her sister Doris. She is survived by the love of her life and husband for 42 years Ronald Coffman, her pride and joy of life and her only daughter Carrie Davis and her son in law Duane Davis, her special niece/daughter Tiffany Brown, her bonus daughters Ashley Coffman and Betty Coffman, her granddaughters Arianna Nelson and Brooklyn Coffman, her brother Roland Brown, and also many other family members. She enjoyed watching reality TV, playing cards, and shopping. A Celebration of Life will be at a later date.

“ While I did not have the pleasure of knowing Catherine, I do know her amazing daughter and son-in-law. Having Carrie as a friend means that Catherine must have been strong-willed, honest, caring, and selfless as a person and a Mom. Because you know what they say, like Mother like Daughter.

“ Ms Cathy...where do I start I've known you since I was 11 yrs old you watched me grow up and have my own children and still called me Deb Deb no matter how old I was. I remember you running over my foot in your lil Geo metro that fit your lil butt so well. You fell and broke your foot jump roping with us and you always listened to your oldies and would sing along. You will be missed may you rest now and say hi to Craig for me as y'all watch over us.
