“ It has been the hardest thing in my life to endure, and I am not sure how I will deal with this gut wrenching pain I feel when I miss my son . He was a gentle soul and he loved deeply . I will miss his laughter. I already miss his nightly phone calls and texts . Chuckie I just love you and miss your presence. Mommy will see you soon baby.

“ Charles Leonard Adams was a man who never gave up on anything. First of all he was a fighter for everything in life! He was very patriotic and had a real love for our country. He was very dependable and loyal. He felt a VERY deep love and loyalty towards his family and good friends. He would go out of his way for anyone who was ever in need of help. He was a lover of music, movies & target shooting but his biggest passion was towards animals. He had the biggest, sweetest heart a person could ever possibly carry inside themselves!! He is VERY loved, cherished & missed!! He is survived by his mother,(Jeanette Chapman-Harding), his wife(Jessica Adams), brother(Aaron Leisner), son(William Lee Adams) and MANY other family and friends.

“ To all of us (Chuck's family), I am praying for the Lord to see us ALL through this. This has been such a horrible week in our lives! The heartache is starting to become unbareable. I pray the Lord give us the strength to walk through this as composed right now as we possibly can because I am finding that the hardest thing to do for me, especially now seeing his pictures on here. I hope everyone leaves thier condolences and lights a candle for my husband. I loved him with ALL my soul & I will continue to love him for the rest of my life. That is what I have decided to do. He WAS & IS my one & only & it will 4-Ever remain that way. I will keep him close always!! He was the only one for me and when the Lord calls me home I WILL be with him again. He is not gone, just gone ahead!!
