

Charles Robert Gray

July 16, 1980 - September 19, 2020

In loving memory of our Charles “Bud” Robert Gray, Jr., beloved son, brother, uncle, nephew, and friend. Our hearts are broken but we are comforted to know that he was met with love by his father Charles Gray, Sr., Andrew James Gray (uncle) and dearest friend Carl Davis.

He was loved and loved well by his large family and friends that became family. Reflective of his life, he was sent home today by his Uncle Jerome. His Aunt Aileen provided the family her constant spiritual support. We plan to celebrate his life at a later date.

Bud had a laugh that lit up a room. He was always in pursuit of a joke, playing a prank or pulling off a jump scare. He loved nothing more than to make others laugh. His kindness extended beyond family and friends; he was known to offer help to someone in need. His nephews loved spending time with Uncle Bud, who he spoiled to pieces and taught them all his tricks.

Charles was talented in so many ways. His writing and music captured so beautifully the struggles of life. His writings spoke of pain, truth, love, perseverance, dreams and hope. We will miss hearing that laugh and seeing your beautiful smile.

We love you a bushel and peck,

Anita Nafady (Mom Dukes) and Carrie Ann (Sissy)

Tribute Wall

RS

“ Lil Bud we are so shocked & surprised of your passing. 😞 Our sincere condolences to your Mom Carrie & the rest of the family. I know they are so lost without you. & your Nephews. too. You definitely were a prankster & kept people laughing. It is just sad you were young & just so full of life & energy! Fly high & R.I.P. Bud as you are reunited with your loved ones & very close friends. It was also a shock to hear about Carl also 😞 Love & hugs to you & your family Robin & Paul (Moke) Snyderman Until we meet again

Robin Snyderman - December 19, 2020 at 09:15 PM

MA

“ I have so many memories, it's hard to choose. I guess the day you gave Carl a hair cut in ICU is a good one. You both were so happy that's day. Now I have two brothers in heaven watching over me. I love you and will miss you.

Mary Austin - October 10, 2020 at 08:08 PM

MA

“ Bud you were more than a friend, your family. The bond you and Carl shared was priceless. Brothers for life, Brothers forever. I love you both .

Mary Austin - October 10, 2020 at 07:51 PM