

Charles Andrew Serio

July 20, 1922 - September 3, 2015

Charles (Chick) Serio died peacefully at age 93 on Sept. 3. He is survived by his devoted wife of 64 years, Marguerite, daughter Angela Boyce (David) of New Mexico, son Dan of Baltimore, granddaughters Seanna and Meijen and son Tom of Florida and granddaughter Sofia and his late son, Andrew. After graduating from Mount St. Joe High School he and best friend and relative, Joe Marsiglia, joined the Marines to fight in WWII. Chick earned the Silver Star in Iwo Jima for his bravery, but always said the real heroes were killed or wounded. He graduated with a law degree on the GI Bill from University of Baltimore. He eventually started Charles A. Serio Ins. Agency until his retirement. He met many lifelong friends selling insurance. He loved the Orioles and was an Orioles Advocate. He was known to have a 'black belt in steamed crabs' and had his photo snapped with Joe DiMaggio thanking him for sending him to the best steamed crabs in town. Chick loved golfing, travelling, a firm handshake, a good joke, his family, many close relatives, dear friends and neighbors. He played poker with the guys until his last days. A funeral mass on Fri, Sept 11 at 11 a.m. at St. Joseph's Church, 8420 Belair Rd., Fullerton. A reception to follow. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Catholic Charities of Baltimore or your favorite charity for the poor and homeless.
