

Christopher D Trotter

June 14, 1984 - March 2, 2018

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

DB

“ Chris was the greatest boyfriend I ever had. Being with him was the best 7 years of my life. He always made me feel wanted and was just a wonderful person in general and would bend over backwards for anyone. He didn't deserve this. This wasn't how our lives were suppose to be. We had plans for our future and now all I have is memories I will cherish forever. I love and miss you chris. I'd do anything to bring you back. I hate my life now. Without you beside me I feel empty. There's a hole in my heart that will never heal and that no one can fill but you. I love you so much n I'll ALWAYS be you girl forever. Until we meet again sweetheart you rest in peace till I get to heaven n we can finally be together again. XOXO, YOUR girlfriend aways, Danielle

Danielle Brown - July 01, 2018 at 06:20 PM