

Cora Francis Brady

April 18, 1928 - August 1, 2019

Cora Brady of High point Pasadena Md. Has left us to be with loved ones whom we have previously lost. She was the loving wife of the late Leo T. Brady preceded by sons Timothy Brady and Terry Brady and daughter Darlene Gray. Survived by beloved sister Betty Welch and loving son Gray Brady. Cora was a nurse for 27 years and retired from North Arundel Hospital of Glen Burnie Maryland. Cora was loved by everyone, her kind smile and sweet laugh touched those around her. she loved her country western music and loved to dance even more. Cora also loved her Baltimore Orioles and shared her passion for the game with her Grandson Jamie Gray whom she had a very close bond. Cora also shared special connection with her Great Granddaughter and name sake "Katelyn Cora" whom she adored. Cora was the center of a large family with Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren, and even Great great grandchildren and nieces and nephews whom all surrounded her with love. Her beautiful Blue eyes, kind heart & sweet laugh will be missed by all.

Tribute Wall

FO

“ Cora Francis Brady

---

Funeral Home Owner - December 12, 2019 at 11:22 AM

MG

“ I am so saddened to learn the passing of Mrs.Brady,a Beautiful Lady. Spent many times at her home in High Point,had a deep Love for her Family! Such a wonderful,kind woman,and that laugh.Condolences to all who Loved and lost her, your in my thoughts and prayers here Philadelphia, Pa. October 16th 2019

---

Michael Gaynor - October 16, 2019 at 10:24 PM

JH

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Brady family, She was the best friend to my mom in High Point, and she made the best ever fudge for me every Christmas. Janette Holliday ( Cook)

---

Janette Holliday - August 21, 2019 at 02:59 PM