

Craig Elliott Collard

February 13, 1939 - June 19, 2026

Craig Elliott Collard, age 87, of Baltimore, Maryland passed away quietly on June 19th, 2026, at Senator Bob Hooper House while in hospice care.

Born on February 13, 1939 in Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, Craig spent his adult life devoted to family, friends and Christ. He was a cherished and blessed Uncle, Friend, Son and Brother.

Craig is preceded in death by his parents, Howard W. Collard and Frances A. (Fessenden) Collard, his elder brother, Jared J. Collard, and his eldest niece, Kimberley A. Vickers.

Craig never married or had children, however, he is survived by his two loving nieces, Susan L. Larson of Eugene, Oregon, and Kathryn L. Kuper of Kent, Washington along with three great-nieces and multiple great-great nieces and nephews.

Craig worked at various sales positions around the Baltimore area and loved to dance and hang out with his friends. He was a devoted Christian who attended the Greater Grace Church in his later years where he developed many dear friendships.

He will be interred at the Lakeview Cemetery in Brockport, New York.
