“ Dad there are so many memories I get to look back on and share with my kids. I'm so glad we had that father daughter bond and we were so close you truly were my best friend. I will cherish our hunting time together and will never walk in the woods again with another man. It's my turn now to teach my kids to hunt and pass on the knowledge you shared with me. I love you so much and will miss you dearly until we meet again. XOXO
