

Darlene Elizabeth Bryant

December 2, 1953 - November 27, 2024

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Darlene Bryant, a truly remarkable woman whose kindness, tireless dedication, and selflessness touched the lives of everyone fortunate enough to know her.

On November 27, 2024, Darlene peacefully passed away, just days shy of her 71st birthday. Darlene's greatest joy was her family, who cherished her deeply. She is survived by her husband of 44 years, David, her four loving children; Matthew, Amanda, Genevieve and Kristin; 7 grandchildren; and one beloved great grandchild. Darlene was predeceased by her dear grandson, Tyler, who remains forever in the hearts of the family. Darlene leaves behind her best friend and sister Deborah Miskiewicz, brother-in-law Wayne Miskiewicz, and her three nieces; Christina, Amy, and Heather.

Darlene began her professional career with Xerox, where she excelled as an analyst and senior professional in information and publishing. Her work was marked by awards and recognitions and a commitment to excellence. Darlene then dedicated nearly 25 more years to a remarkable career in the technology industry. She concluded her career at Apple, where she served as the National Support Services Manager, a role in which she made significant contributions to customer support excellence and team development. Her dedication and leadership left an indelible mark on her colleagues and the organization she served. Darlene's success at Apple was driven by her exceptional kindness, her ability to recognize the unique strengths of each individual, and her unwavering commitment to helping others excel. Her people-focused leadership style not only advanced her own career but also empowered countless colleagues to achieve their full potential, leaving a lasting legacy of compassion and mentorship.

Darlene lived a life of quiet strength, always placing the needs of others above her own and embodying the true spirit of compassion. Her legacy of love and generosity will forever be cherished by her family and friends. Darlene spent countless hours knitting scarves, in the company of her beloved dog Stella, for Grassroots Foundation; a cause close to her heart.

At Darlene's request, a private service and Celebration of Life will be held in her honor.
