“Dad, This is your son Jason. I'm so lost for words as I write this message. January 23, 2022 was the saddest feeling I ever had to experience. The minute I walked in the door my wife said there is some bad news. She then replied your father passed away. At first I was happy because I knew it was a lie. But then after the conversation I had with my mom reality started to set in. I sat on the couch and let my tears flow. I still can't believe it. Even though we were distant I still never had a chance to say I love you and I finally made it in life. You and I both know the path in my life was hard but I never gave up. I might not be rich but I have a wife 3 beautiful kids and everything I can imagine in life at my fingertips. The best thing I will be able to tell your grandkid's about you is you saved my life. Remember when I chocked on a gum ball and was practically dead you managed to bring me back. And I never had I chance to say thank you for giving me an opportunity at life. Until now thank you. To everyone that makes it to this page remember life is too short to hold grudges make amends because family is the most important thing in life. Fly high daddy. Love your son Jason
