Dean Quintiliani

August 22, 1961 - January 28, 2020

Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow,
but remember me in every tomorrow.
Remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles.
I've only gone to rest for a while.
Although my leaving causes pain and grief,
My going has eased my hurt and given me relief.
So dry your eyes and remember me,
Not as I am but as I used to be.
Because, I will remember you all
and look on with a smile.
Understand in your hearts,
I've only gone to rest a while.
As long as I have the love of you,
I can live my life in the hearts of all of you.

A Celebration of Life will be held in Maryland in the Spring

“ We met Dean through our friends Jackie and Jim Mcquarry. We were looking to fill our first truck driver position and Dean came highly recommended from Jim and Jackie. We quickly became friends. Dean also became an intercal part of our company, from helping build/repair trucks to training new employees. Dean was always so friendly and also a mentor to other drivers hired throughout the years. One of Dean’s many qualities was his positive can do personality with a crazy laugh that was distinctively Dean Quintiliani. Dean was always quick to make new employees feel welcome, but also to family, friends, customers and even strangers. His wife Debi shared many of Dean’s positive qualities and the two of them together were always the life of the party. Over the years Dean became one of our closest friends, even our daughter Kaitlin loved him very much. One time she even said that if anything were to ever happen to us she would want to move in and be raised by Dean and Debi. Dean also had a serious side to him as well. Scott and Dean had many conversations about salvation through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Dean had told Scott that he had accepted Jesus into his life as his Lord and Savior. We will miss you buddy (love you like a brother). Scott and Anne Markus

“ When I was a very young girl I remember thinking my cousin Dino (only 2 years older than me) was so handsome and way too cool to hang out with a little girl like me. Dino was just so kind and took the time to meet my friends. Of course all my friends were in love but I was just over the moon with the attention he showed me. He cemented a place in my childhood heart that has never left. Life took us in different directions as we grew up but I always kept all of my cousins in my heart, especially Dino. I was so thrilling to have reconnected recently with Him through Facebook. His Aunt Vicky (Age 93) talked about how wonderful Dino was to her and how he called her weekly and checked in on her. She took such joy at how happy Dino was and how much he loved his life. Thank you Dino for sharing your faith in Jesus Christ so openly. This has given me great comfort as I am sure it comforts Debi and your family tremendously. Rest In Peace sweet cuz & brother in Christ. You left an imprint on this girl's heart and I know we shall meet again. To your beautiful wife Debi and your entire family you dearly loved I pray that God will comfort them in this time of missing you. Rest In Peace Cuz ❤️
