

Dejohn Mckinley Florence

September 10, 1965 - March 12, 2020

"Your gentle face and patient smile.
With sadness we recall
You had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
The voice is mute and stilled
the heart
That loved us well and true.
Ah, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.
You are not forgotten loved one
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now,
our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place."

“ To my friend DeJohn, wishing you a happy heavenly birthday. I'm still shocked of your passing. You were one of the first person I met when moving to MD. I loved talking to your mom and sister Michelle. I read of the great things your children and family said about you and I Ditto on it. I know you and your mom are having a great time. Missing you “ Still missing you so much. Miss our trips and spending time together. I am an example of a spoiled little sister. Always in my hurt.

“ Dejohn was my best friend. There are so many regrets I have regarding things I could have done to stay in touch or even spend time with him. There's so much inside that wants to spill out about how I feel about losing him. Suffice to say it's all very surreal and even as I write this I'm unwilling to accept that I'll never see or talked to him again. I loved him. I miss him. If he's watching from wherever he is, may he guide and protect his children.

“ This is my father, he's someone that always have me smiling and laughing through the darkest times in my life. He always made sure that no matter what I do in life, he'll always have my back. I miss him so much and my heart aches because I can't see, hear, and talk to him anymore. I do know one thing, I'm going to be the best me I can be because that's what he deserves, to show that all he did for me won't go to waste.

“ This is my daddy funny and goofy always have you laughing. There was no mean bone in his body. If you needed something he was the one to call. He was warmth in my heart.
