

Delma Frances Fowler

January 30, 1932 - March 18, 2021

Delma Frances Fowler, passed away peacefully at her home in Hurlock, Maryland on Thursday, March 18, 2021 at the age of 89.

Delma was born to the late William H. Hynson and Ethel (Upton) Hynson on January 30, 1932. Delma wed William T. Fowler on December 15, 1950 and was a devoted housewife and mother. She will ever be remembered by her daughters Donna S. Miles, Delma A. Fowler; granddaughter Jessica E. Webster and husband Lawrence; great-grandchildren Richard L. Webster and Lauren E. Webster and; sister Wilma B. Parks.

Preceding her in death, husband William T. Fowler, sister Lois A. Griffin; brother William H. Hynson; daughter Bonnie L. Malloy; granddaughter Sarah A. Malloy. Delma was a two time breast cancer survivor; once in 1994 and then again in 2007. She kept her faith through each surgery and was cancer free for many years to follow. Delma loved the Lord and belonged to the Glen Burnie chapter of the Women's Aglow. She was a Sunday school teacher and started "Little Angel's" a children's ministry in her previous neighborhood of Henderson, Maryland to help under privileged children. She played games with them, gave them snacks and even put on a Easter parade but mainly she taught them about Jesus.

For the family and friends of Delma Frances Fowler: In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Costal hospice. <http://www.Coastalhospice.org> (please cut and paste to your browser) We appreciate the compassion and care they showed our family.

Tribute Wall

AF

“ Our deepest and heartfelt condolences for your loss. Though she is gone from your sight, she leaves behind her love and light to comfort each of you.

Anna and Pete Fiorio - March 26, 2021 at 07:44 PM

TF

“ Our deepest condolences and warmest sympathies. We wish you comfort in your memories. May her memory always be a blessing.

The Paper Family - March 25, 2021 at 05:10 PM