“ God I have so many memories and unfortunately no new future memories to make with you my sister. When we were young children and we went to Arizona for mom and dad to get married and you sat on a cactus and they had to remove the cacti needles out of your bum. Lmao god it's funny thinking back on it now. Or when we lived in Michigan and we got our very first regular Nintendo me and you playing for hours. To protecting you from guys in school and on the bus. To when you got in your bad car accident and all you asked mom and dad do was for me to be there at the hospital as I hauled ass from Nashville to Dickson to be at the hospital with you. To the private family tragedy that occurred in Clarksville and you cleaning the house up to finding out you were pregnant with Thomas to driving mom and myself to Baltimore for you to deliver. There's so many family trips we went on that I'll never forget you may be gone physically from this cruel world but your memory will live on in us all. I love you sister and I'll miss you forever.

“ To my soul sister... I will never forget all the fun we had growing up. You were always there for me and I for you. The best memories are swimming in the creek and the church lock in. And of course prom. It also meant the world to me that you made it to Graduation. You were one of my anchors when the storms of life got to rough. Watch over us all, sweet angel. Fly high

“ Denise, if only love was enough to keep you alive you would have lived forever. Your family and friends miss you so much. I remember my first time meeting you and knowing all us girls would get in trouble together. You quickly realized how close Stacey and I were and knew we would be like sisters as well. I remember seeing you as a mama for the first time and getting to hold Thomas. We all know how much he meant to you and how much you loved that little boy! I promise to keep Stacey out of trouble, to remind Thomas of how much his mommy loved him every single time I see or talk to him. Your memory will be kept alive through your fiends and family. \nWe love and miss you Denise. \nAnd to all her family we are with you always. \n\nKayla Hardy and Family.
