“ I met Dennis while working in Southern Maryland during the early 1990s. He was a great guy and we all enjoyed chatting about a wide array of topics with him. I did get to go fishing with him. The best part was when we went fishing in a massive recreational pond. We did not get a fish, let alone a single bite. Come to find out a week later that there was no fish stocked in it according to Dennis. LOL. Dennis was a very loyal friend and a great guy. He has some fascinating work experiences that would make for some interesting movie titles.

“ Dennis was one of the kindest persons I ever met. He didn't deserve to die so young. Dennis has been a friend of the family for a long time but I didn't meet him until he drove my aunt to PA to pick me up from a physical rehab center. He then drove us to my aunt's house in DE. He didn't ask for nor did he accept any offer of payment or a dinner. I'm sure that his many acts of kindness gave him an express entrance to Heaven. Rest In Peace.
