December 2, 1956 - June 12, 2020

Dennis Wayne Sullivan, 63, of Shady Side, Maryland, died at home from ALS on Friday, June 12, 2020, surrounded by his loved ones. He was born on December 2, 1956, in Washington, DC, to Raymond and Ethel Sullivan. He graduated from James W. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend. Dennis had fun, worked hard, and enjoyed life. Watching sports, collecting sports cards, and bowling were some of his favorite activities; he even bowled a perfect game, achieving the highest possible score of 300. A gathering to celebrate Dennis' life will be held once social distancing restrictions are relaxed so family and friends can attend.

“ Prayers and love to Linda, Ryan and Amanda. We can't think of Dennis without a smile or a chuckle. A genuine, warm and funny friend and neighbor. Will miss him and his Saturday morning stops by the house after he got his 7-11 coffee and Linda's Dunkin Donuts coffee. Rest in peace, Dennis. ❤️

“ I'm going to miss my bestfriend and brother. As Dennis would always say \"we are brothers but from a different mother\". We have been friends for over 20 plus years and he always made me laugh. I have so many fond memories. Either from work or personal. Even my kids remember how he would have something funny to say about me which made them laugh. My son Mike remember how Dennis was so helpful and funny when he helped me move to Florida. We had a great time during the move. Dennis had a great heart and would do whatever he could to help anyone that was in need. He loved his family so much and I pray that God would keep the family strong during this time. I'm going to miss him deeply from the heart. I will always remember the great times (which are many) that we had....I will always love you Dennis. Your brother Mike.

“ I will miss my old buddy Dennis. He was a great friend. He quit two great jobs to help me start two businesses. When you work with one of your closest friends it sure makes life easier. He started me in sports cards. I will miss you old friend.

“ I will always remember Dennis’ humor! The first time Linda introduced us he was a rascal and always remained a rascal. I enjoyed being around him and he always made me smile and laugh. And that’s how I will always remember him, until we meet again. God bless you Dennis. ❤️
