“ Ms. Neonakis, I think of you and the brief time I knew you. I remember a beautiful soul filled with knowledge of all science. You cared so about others. I will miss you.

“ a beautiful creative soul - a star was lost on March 26th , but your shine and glimmering ability has never left. You have touched lives and made a difference with your time. Your grace and beauty and intelligence was far superior. I hope one day I will see you again! I will forever remember you. <3
