

Dolores Alpert Diamond

June 27, 1931 - March 27, 2024

Dolores A. Diamond, 92, of Silver Spring passed away peacefully on March 27, 2024. Dolores was better known as the Belle of V street growing up. A true Washingtonian whose family fled Eastern Europe and emigrated to DC, where they spent much of their time working in their family grocery store. Dolores graduated from the University of Maryland and began a teaching career, which touched the lives of kindergarteners for over 40 years. She married her true love, Marty Diamond, they settled down and had three children of which she was fiercely proud. Dolores was a woman before her time juggling a career and family. She adored her two grandchildren Madden and Addison Diamond who she taught to be strong, smart, and spectacular women like her.

Dolores was predeceased by Marty Diamond and her son Jonathan Diamond. She is survived by her daughters Claudia Diamond, Caroline Diamond (Chris Dunne) and her grandchildren Madden and Addison Diamond. She leaves behind her brother and trusted sidekick Lawrence Alpert who she so fondly called Larry boy.

A graveside service will be held Wednesday April 3rd, at 12 PM at King David Memorial Garden, Falls Church, VA.
