“ Don was one of the best parts of my day every time I saw him. We were the first two in the office every morning and talked every day when we worked together. I'd hear him approaching down the hallway, usually singing or bopping along merrily even if the day was off to a rough start. He made things better.\nRIP Don, and my sincerest condolences to his family

“ Don was one of my oldest friends. Not in age. Just the time we were friends. 4 months shy of 52 years. All the High School stuff. Concerts. Camping. Tipping the canoe on the Delaware River and losing almost a full case of Bud in cans. It was a sad night at the campfire that night. He was one of a kind. I am just happy to have known him, and the good times we had and the laughs that we shared. I will miss you my friend. Carol and family. I am so sorry for your loss. He was a good man and loved by many people who knew him.

“ I enjoyed Don's presence, his attitude and his simplicity. I wish he could have been with us longer, but God knows best. \n\n"Eccl 12:6-7 or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel at the cistern. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it."

“ Carol, and family, I am so very sorry for your loss. A loss that I also feel. I worked with Don for several years, sometimes closely. He was always enthusiastic, happy, and helpful. It was fun to be around Don, and he was very good at what he did. He made many important contributions not only technically, but to the spirit of the team.

“ Don was a very sociable person; he was everyone's friend. The thing I remember most about Don was his attitude of gratitude. The last conversation we had, I thanked him for his work in finishing up a design, and he thanked me for getting him the job here. I will miss his cheerful smile and welcoming greetings. \nOne time Don asked me if he could borrow my floor jack because someone had a flat tire, and he was going to go and help them change it. He wrestled my heavy jack into his tiny car and drove off. Minutes later he returned frustrated that when he got there with the jack there was already someone there changing the tire. He was frustrated that he wasn't able to help. That is the kind of person Don was, a very helpful friend, even to complete strangers.
