“ Mom, you and I had our differences over the years but you were always there for me when needed. I thank you so much for raising my son, Scott... I love him with all my heart and he's a fine man. I miss dad very much and know I will miss you as well. I miss our long talks on the phone, or your telling me things going on with Scott. I know you were very close to your brothers and now I know you are together with them and granny and grandad and most of all dad, your husband and my father. I miss all of you and hope to see you all again some day. Love you so much, your daughter Sally
