

Douglas J Hoylman

July 2, 1943 - November 2, 2015

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

GS

“Doug was a fellow science-fiction fan, and an Official Friend of Toad Hall (my home for 20 years in Minneapolis, MN). It pains me that he's gone. I first met Doug in Minneapa, in the early 1980s. In 1984, he came to the midwest for Dell-con, a small, fannish, Memorial Day Weekend expedition to the Wisconsin Dells that I organized. His dry humor and sincerity added a lot of amusement to our hunt for the tackiest Wisconsin Dells Souvenir. He returned the next year for the first Not-A-D-Con, which was held in Minneapolis. I knew of his reputation and success in the crossword puzzle field, but to me, when it comes to language, he'll always be the King of the Palindromes. Sympathy to his brother, and to all others who appreciated Doug.

Geri Sullivan - December 20, 2015 at 10:05 PM

EB

“Doug and I were members of two Amateur Press Associations, MINNEAPA and Stipple-Apa. I think I only met him once, when he attended a science fiction convention in Minnesota. All our other interactions were in print. Doug had a quiet demeanor, a sincere love of palindromes, and a fiendish sense of humor. I will miss him very much.

Erik Bieber - December 01, 2015 at 08:43 PM

CB

“I will miss Doug. It's always sad to lose a friend, but a boardgaming friend is extra special. Chris

Chris Brandt - November 17, 2015 at 09:45 AM

JW

“ Doug was a good friend; I knew him from gaming events (mostly through the Games Club of Maryland of which he was a Patron Member and Host and Co-Host) that both of us attended over the years. I know he was also in active in Mensa and successful at competitions in both crossword puzzles and trivia (Facts in Five). I guess I must have played a couple of hundred games with Doug over the years and will certainly miss him.

John Weber - November 12, 2015 at 02:59 PM