“ Earl, Winterlee, Jesse and Tiffani came into our lives many moons ago! Jesse and our beloved John-Graham became passionate baseball players and we four parents warmed the seats of innumerable benches, watching Jesse as catcher, and John-Graham as pitcher. Miles were added to Winterlee's precious Cadillac and my big Tahoe, as we transported our sons to Coach Billy's barn for improving their baseball skills. Earl was a superb and knowledgeable car salesman from whom my husband David and I purchased cars, always finding the experience of dealing with him simply pleasant and easy as he was the ultimate Professional man. Our friendship continued and we are grateful to have had the Ray family in our lives. Even in his illness, Earl was kind and loving to all. His wife Winterlee and the family cared for him devotedly. It is hard to say goodbye to good people, but now Earl's journey is to live with God in peace and to watch over us all with devotion, as he did while he was on this earth. Rest in the Lord dear Earl and I'm so glad our paths all crossed.
