“ Little Earl! It has been over four years since I have heard your voice or hugged you. I remember how happy you were when you came to Alabama. You got to ride horses, drive the mule, hike for hours, and just be a kid. You didn't have any responsibilities, worries, or fears...you got to just be a kid, and it is honestly the most beautiful memory I have of you. I'm so thankful I could give you that even if it was just for a couple of weeks. You and Shane's eyes lit up when we took you to Florida, and I remember hugging you on the beach watching the sunset. You told me it was the most beautiful and peaceful place you had ever been. Every time I go back, I think of you and Shane playing for hours in the raft on the sandbar, and it brings me joy. \nAs your aunt, I got to be your biggest fan and see all of the best parts of you. I will treasure our many talks and memories. I'll never be ok with how you left this world, but I will always be thankful for the impression you left on my heart. You are loved and always remembered.

“Wow...where should I start!? There's so many great stories! I first met you in the summer of 2011! wow time flies! when I first met you man...right there I knew this was a wonderful man. such a great heart. You are definitely the only man I knew that was humble and kind, and so patient. You would always put me before anything else. You always made sure I was OK; always! You ALWAYS supported me in anything I wanted to become in school, and most of all you were there for me for my graduation. You made sure I succeeded. Not only were you my high school lover but you were definitely my best friend. You pushed me into the woman I am today. I'm successful now and truly thankful of you. Earl I miss you so much! Thank you for being in life. You will forever and always be remembered by me. Love, Carrie
