AFTER GLOW

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly
down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears
of those who grieve
to dry before the sun,
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.

“ I remember when he I last saw him in Atlantic City. He thought I didn't know who he was because he had been going through. He said \" you dont know who I am?\" I said \" of course I do come on and give me my hug\" He told me \"he was leaving AC and he was going to get his self together\" and he kept his word!!
