“ Eddie did love sports. I spent most of my formative years playing baseball with Eddie. I can't remember a single team that I was on that Eddie wasn't. He was on my softball teams as an adult too. I loved Eddie so much. He loved my entire family so much. My wife and I ordered pizza from Pizza Hut way too much. There were times when we legit ordered it from the parking lot of Pizza Hut just so that we could go in and hang out with Eddie while it was being made. He would randomly pop up and my job just to chat about wrestling or how my kids were. I'm really going to miss you Eddie. Thank you for being a wonderful friend and I'm thankful that you were in my life

“ Where do I begin We had a true brother and sister relationship. In the last 13 years we've had our fair share of Ups downs and fights, Bickering back and fourth, but most of all we had each other's backs. You are/we're the best brother, uncle, friend that we could have ever asked for. Chloe, Zoey, and Hunter will never forget you. We will hold your memory alive by all the memories we shared. Like going to Ocean City, the carnivals we attended, birthdays and all the holidays, and all those nights you babysat for us and even the just because times. :) You had brotherhood that was unmatched with John. Anytime either one of you needed anything you guys were always there for one another. Also you are/were the most kind, caring, nurturing, big hearted person who would give anyone who was struggling the last dollar from your pocket or a ride where they needed. You selflessly helped other in any way you could. We will always Love you❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
