

Eileen M. Canning

January 13, 1925 - March 26, 2018

Mary Eileen Canning, "Eileen", a resident of Linthicum Heights for 50 years, passed away on March 24, 2018. Eileen was born on January 13, 1925 in Morgantown, WV. She attended Patterson Park High in Baltimore. Eileen worked for many years at the medical Arts Building in Baltimore City for a surgeon and other doctors. Later, her career path changed and she worked for Druid Hill Federal Bank, which later became Chesapeake Bank. She retired from the banking field in 1993. Eileen enjoyed gardening, home decorating and talking to friends and family on the phone for hours on end. Eileen is survived by her brother, Joseph Canning, his wife Betty, three nieces, Lois Rank and husband Jim, Susan Handy and husband Victor, Barbara Bennett and husband Terry, five great nephews, Kenneth Rank, Robert Rank, Jeffrey Handy, Mason Bennett, Mitchell Bennett, two greta nieces, Elizabeth Handy, Madison Bennett and five great great nephews, oseph Rank, Jacob Handy, Nicholas Handy, Joshua Handy and Hunter Cory. Eileen is also survived by many cousins with whom she kept in close contact over the years.