Elaine was a homemaker in her younger years, raising her 3 daughters. Later in life she worked side by side with her Husband Jerry as a Professional Painter. The job sites knew them as "The Seinfeld Crew- Jerry and Elaine". In her spare time she enjoyed hearing her husband Jerry playing his records (Doo-Wop and Elvis), watching any type of Paranormal TV shows, The Voice, The Masked Singer and old Game Shows. She also enjoyed going to hear her daughter Tammy sing, she was so very proud of her. She always told people that she had the most beautiful daughters and how proud she was of all of them and was truly blessed that Amy and Mindy gave her and Dad their beautiful grandchildren; whom they loved with all they had. Amy and Mindy always made her laugh, she always said "You girls are too much."

Elaine loved to eat. Her favorites were Maryland steamed crabs, Ramono's Shish Kabob, sausage gravy and biscuits from Southside Diner, McDonald's fruit and oatmeal and gummy bears, especially the green ones. These things made her very happy.

Her husband Jerry was the love of her life, married 52 years. She grieved terribly when he passed away on New Year's Eve, December 31, 2019. She is already greatly missed!

“ One of the most amazing memories I have of Elaine is when she and Jerry first started dating. I was dating her brother David and my sister Leona was dating her brother Kenny. Elaine's sister Linda was dating Jerry's brother Wayne, and later, her older sister Mary started dating Jerry and Wayne's younger brother Jessie. So we had 3 sisters who later married those 3 brothers. And the 3 sisters had 2 brothers who later married 2 sisters. We talked about that every time we ever got together. I later remarried and drifted away from all of them, but I never loved them any less. I never remember a time when Elaine wasn't smiling about something. I will always have Elaine in my heart.
