

Elizabeth Joann Morris

July 18, 1937 - July 27, 2024

Elizabeth “Betty” Morris passed away on July 27, 2024, at her home, surrounded by family.

Elizabeth met her husband, William “Jack” Morris, while living with her sister in Baltimore, where her brother-in-law was stationed. The two shared a loving marriage for fifty years until Jack's passing in 2005. She retired from the Maryland Gazette, where she worked as a receptionist for over 30 years. She took great joy and pride in her work, always greeting everyone with a warm smile.

A devout Catholic, Elizabeth regularly attended services at Christ the King Catholic Church (formerly Holy Trinity). She cherished her time at her condo in Ocean City, Maryland, and loved traveling across the country with Jack. However, her greatest joy was visiting Vandergrift, Pennsylvania, where she spent time with family and reminisced on the porch of her childhood home. Proud of her Polish heritage, she also embraced her life as a Baltimorean, enjoying steamed crabs and cheering on the Orioles and Ravens.

Elizabeth will be deeply missed by her son, Lance Morris; daughter, Cynthia

Silver; son-in-law, Robert Silver; granddaughter, Brittney Avelleyra; grand son-in-law, Aurelio Avelleyra; grandson, Robert Morris; grand daughter-in-law, Hayley Morris; great granddaughter, Delilah Morris; great-grandson, Ashton Avelleyra; as well as many nieces and nephews.

She is predeceased by her parents, John and Annie Sunday; sisters, Caroline Holben, Genevieve Novick, Edna Santoro, Ann Gravelle, and Helen Pugliese; brothers, John and Martin Sunday; and companion of 14 years, Brian Leslie.

A mass will be held at Christ the King Catholic Church in Glen Burnie on September 25th.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the Hospice of the Chesapeake.

“ I met Miss Betty a couple years ago because her dog got out and I found him and I ended up becoming friends with her. And she was the nicest lady and I used to call her to just talk to her sometimes.
