

Elizabeth Ann Semone

April 19, 1970 - February 9, 2025

Elizabeth Ann Semone affectionately known as Boo, was born to the late Joseph Semone and Peggy Ann Sherman (Cohen) at South Baltimore General Hospital on April 19, 1970 in Baltimore, Maryland. She suddenly departed this life on Sunday, February 09, 2025.

Elizabeth received Christ at an early age and attended Catholic school throughout elementary and middle school. She attended Southern High School.

After high school, she briefly attended Automation Academy for Nursing where she became CPR certified. She also worked as a nursing assistant at Sedgwick in the late 80s. She held multiple positions as a cook throughout her lifetime. In her later years, all she wanted was to make up for missed time with her children and grandchildren.

As a child, Elizabeth loved being a member of the Girl Scouts and Brownies and boxing for the boys and girls club. She loved to cook, her favorite foods were spaghetti, chili, cornbread stuffing and steak (where she could have put any steakhouse to shame). Elizabeth was a good person with an infectious laugh, a heart made of gold, and didn't have a mean bone in her body. She loved doing daily activities with her long time partner Rob, and she loved her children and grandchildren.

Elizabeth leaves to cherish her memories; two daughters Latosha Keene (Mike) and Mary Keene (Quan), one son: Brandon Carlton (Lawren), four grandchildren: Jordan Clark, DeJuan Newton Jr., Jazlynn Clark, Meilani Heng, and lifetime partner/companion Robert Milligan.
