

Ella Mae Guine

August 10, 1950 - December 29, 2025

Ella Mae Guine, 75, passed away peacefully on December 29, 2025, in Glen Burnie, Maryland. Born on August 10, 1950, in Darlington, South Carolina, Ella's life was a vibrant tapestry woven with faith, family, and joy.

Ella's journey was deeply rooted in her spiritual devotion. She embraced a strong spiritual path and found great comfort and purpose in studying various religious teachings. Her love for the word of God guided her throughout her life as she sought to walk closely with the Lord Father God.

She lived each day with intention and joy, embracing what she called the five F's: Faith, Family, Friends, Flowers, Food—and always Fun. These guiding principles shaped a life filled with warmth and connection. Whether surrounded by loved ones or tending to nature's beauty beneath her favorite willow tree, Ella found happiness in life's simple blessings.

Ella is lovingly remembered by her one and only daughter, Celeste Childs; her three grandsons; Timothy Armstead Jr., Me'Chon Fields Jr. and Amari Harris and Grand daughter Brandi Johnson as well as her God Daughter Tara Jackson. Her sister Willie Mae Jackson, nieces and nephews, cousins; and a host of extended family and friends who were touched by her presence. She now joins in rest her beloved parents, husband, and other cherished family members who preceded her in death.

In accordance with Ella's wishes, there will be no public service to celebrate her life. A private gathering for close family members will be held instead. Her ashes will be returned to the earth beneath a big weeping willow tree—a place she loved dearly and where her spirit will continue to bloom.

Those wishing to honor Ella may send cards or monetary gifts to her daughter.

May Ella Mae Guine's memory bring peace and comfort to all who knew and loved her.

Tribute Wall

“ My mother was the best mom anyone could ever have. She loved God and she loved people as God does. She will forever be missed and loved. ”

CELESTE M CHILDS - February 25 at 05:00 AM