

Elsie Chatman

May 25, 1928 - April 19, 2020

Elsie Frazier Chatman joined her beloved Eddie in heaven on Sunday April 19, 2020 after succumbing to medical challenges related to COVID-19. Elsie was born on May 25, 1928 in Pittsburg, PA where she lived until she graduated from high school. After which, she moved to the Washington, DC area to accept employment as a computer programmer with the federal government. She married her husband, Edward L. Chatman in 1952 and they led a happy and fruitful life until his death in 2000. Elsie was also preceded in death by her parents, Dozia and Ethel Frazier, and her brothers Henry, Dozia, Jr., James and Andrew Frazier. Elsie leaves to mourn a host of in-laws, nieces and nephews. As were Elsie's wishes, she was cremated and will be privately interred at Lincoln Memorial Cemetery. A public memorial service will be held as soon as feasibly possible.

Tribute Wall

CY

“ Aunt Elsie quick wit and loved a good joke. She loved balloons and rainbows. She is now over the rainbow way up high. What a full life she led being loved and loved in return. Rest in peace. With all my love Cynthia York.

Cynthia York - April 28, 2020 at 07:29 PM